Selling High Tech Solutions to France

Is your expertise in the ICT, Medical, Biotech, Electronics, Cleantech and high-tech products or services?

Thursday 18 November 2010

Are you interested in exporting to Europe?
Why not France?

7.30 am to 9.00 am

The French-Australian Chamber of Commerce & Industry South Australia together with Exportia invite you to attend a free business breakfast on exporting to France.

Business SA, 136 Greenhill
Road, Unley SA 5061

Exportia specialises in assisting Australian ICT, electronics, biotech, health and cleantech companies to establish their products/services and drive their export sales in the two largest European markets— France and Germany.

With offices in Australia and in France, and a team based in Germany, Exportia has implemented several successful export projects for Australian companies in Europe.

Exportia will present real case scenarios and tips on the market entry strategy, on engaging and building relationship with the perfect-match distributor and reaching sales, on overcoming cultural and language barriers. The workshop will also cover the CE Mark and present market opportunities available in high-tech industries in France.
